PAVING THE PATH TO GREATNESS: A COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE

"The Prophet (peace be upon him) said, 'Allah loves that when anyone of you does a job, he does it with excellence.'"

Sahih Al-Bukhari (468)

"Indeed, Allah commands justice, excellence (Ihsan), and giving to relatives, and forbids immorality, bad conduct, and oppression. He admonishes you that perhaps you will be reminded."

Surah An-Nahl (16:90)

In the fast-paced modern life of a Muslim, it is easy to tolerate and accept mediocrity, so long as it gets us by. The relentless effort – from just getting through school, to just searching for a job, to just achieving a sense of safety – and for the fortunate – to starting a family – can make it easy to settle. We accept the bare minimum to move through life. However, Islam teaches us to strive far beyond this. Islam teaches us to be intentional in our actions toward our aspirations, to be leaders in our respective fields, and to highlight and empower our skills.

Ihsan translates to Excellence. It is our duty and obligation as servants of Allah (SWT) to practice excellence in our everyday lives. To strengthen our ummah is to strengthen ourselves. Just as the prophets had ambitions beyond themselves, just as the sahaba took pride in their skills, just as the Islamic Golden Age established the frameworks for modern-day mathematics, sciences, art, and medicine – we must usher in ihsan in this ever-changing world.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: Do I register through my MSA or do I register myself?

- Registration is done individually. Some MSAs may have a form that you're required to fill out so that they can plan lodging & transportation; however, you must still register yourself with us to be considered fully registered for Showdown.

Q: My school doesn't have an MSA but I still want to compete/attend Showdown. Is this possible?

- ABSOLUTELY! On the registration form, specify your school under "Other". If your school doesn't have an MSA and you'd like to compete in something, contact bod@msa-texas.org, so that we can try to accommodate your request(s).

Q: How can my MSA afford hotel & transportation costs for our members?

- We recommend asking your university's student government for funding, doing fundraisers on campus (bake sales, profit shares, etc.), and asking for donations at the masjid. Additionally, LSC does provide MSAs with grant funding, with certain requirements in place.

Q: I can't come to Friday of Showdown. Is there a way I can still check-in and attend?

- Yes! Email bod@msa-texas.org with any concerns and we'll try to figure out a way you can attend showdown.

Q: I have a lot of questions about Showdown. Who can I talk to?

- Email bod@msa-texas.org or on social media (@msalsc).

Q: This is the first time our MSA is going to Showdown. Can someone help us keep track of what to do?

- Absolutely! Please check page 5 of this document for a list of all the documents and forms needed to be done before attending Showdown. Also, please reach out to us via email (bod@msa-texas.org) and our Community Directors will follow up with you.

Q: I have an exam that weekend so I can't go. Can I leave Showdown early?

- Yes, you don't have to stay for the entire weekend! While we recommend staying for the entirety of Showdown to gain the full experience, we understand that everyone's circumstances are different. If you need to leave early, let your MSA President/Showdown Coordinator know.
 - If you're participating in a prejudged competition like Written Poetry or Short Film, and aren't able to physically attend Showdown, that's okay! You'll still need to register for your piece to be entered and judged in the competition.

Q: What is required for sports jerseys?

- All jerseys must be the same color as their team. Numbers must be printed on the back. Names are not required but are encouraged. Jerseys do not need to be fancy or expensive; simple jerseys available at Academy or Walmart suffice. Additionally, jersey designs can be handmade, with the numbers printed on the back of each jersey in bold/fabric paint. Tape is not allowed.

WE LOOK FORWARD TO SEEING YOU AT THE RICE UNIVERSITY FOR SHOWDOWN 2025!
